

DAY TRIP TO ICELAND (South)

Tuesday 20th July 2010

£299

Includes all airport taxes

Hallgrímskirkja church is Reykjavik's main landmark and its tower can be seen from almost everywhere in the city.

Gullfoss Falls

Board your escorted coach with English speaking guide for the short journey to the famous Blue Lagoon (photo and refreshment stop only). Continue by coach for a scenic journey (approx. 2hrs) across the amazing landscape, passing the numerous Lava Fields, before entering the capital city of Reykjavik and continuing across country to the Geysir geothermal field with its spouting hot springs and fabulous scenery. Free time here for a short walking tour and a refreshment stop - arrive approx. 1310 hrs. Re-board coach for the short journey to the spectacular Gullfoss waterfalls (photo and sightseeing stop taking in the magnificent views). For those brave enough, take the short walk to the outer ledge for an unforgettable experience watching the enormous volume of water as it cascades into the deep gorge below. You will then travel back to Reykjavik, the world's most northerly capital city, via the harbour area, to admire the views of the impressive Hallgrímskirkja Church, before continuing back to the airport.

YOU WILL NEED A PASSPORT

Depart B'mth 0730 hrs Return 2230 hrs